

MIDWEST CHAPTER meeting

Hosted By the D.C. Ramey Piano Company Shop and the AMICA Midwest chapter

October 19, 2024 - Marysville, Ohio (near Columbus)

YOU are invited to a joint AMICA / MBSI chapter meeting on Saturday, October 19. Highlights of the day include:

- Tours of the world-famous D.C. Ramey Piano Company Shop automatic musical instrument workshop, DCRamey.com
- Tours of "Nickel Music Collection Open House" -, featuring the private collections of David Ramey, Jr./ Bart Off/ and Brad McClincy in an historic 1879 building, showcasing numerous orchestrions and nickelodeons (not handicap accessible).
- Dave Graber open house and finger food lunch. Dave's home is a 15,000 SF old church building on 3 levels, full of items Dave said "he is interested in" including numerous music boxes, phonographs, general antiques and player pianos.
- Brad McClincy will be playing a 1908 North Tonawanda 52 key Automatic Military Band as well as a Stinson Caliola band organ from 1-10 PM Saturday, September 21 as part of the Ill Mannered Taproom and Barrel House Oktoberfest in Uptown Marysville for the public.
- Family style dinner and business meeting in our private room at the Der Dutchman - Amish kitchen cooking

If you live within a couple of hours of the Columbus Ohio area, you can probably participate in all our festivities for the day, without staying at a hotel. If you prefer spending the night before and/or after our meeting, we have secured a special AMICA / MBSI rate for you at the Marysville - Holiday Inn Express. Regular rate is $179, our rate is $129 good until 10/4/24.

The very nominal $35 per person pays for dinner at the Der Dutchman, 'finger food' lunch at Dave Graber's open house and gives you access to see these collections. Space is limited so please let us know ASAP if you plan to join us.

To participate, please fill out the attached and return with your check, or email information to:
